Meet the Partners

Matt Sosnick & Paul Cobbe

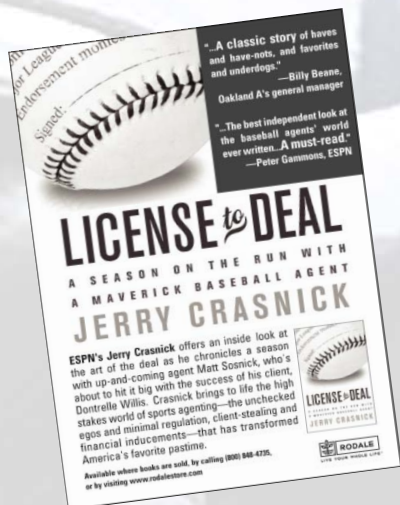

The partnership of Matt Sosnick and Paul Cobbe goes back more than thirty years. As player representatives, these men extend to every client the same loyalty, commitment and respect that has sustained and nurtured their life-long friendship.

Matt and Paul, 1975

Matt and Paul, 2000

Matt and Paul's tremendous success featured in License to Deal by ESPN writer, Jerry Crasnick

MATT SOSNICK earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Southern California, with a major in Communications and a minor in Business. After working in his family's business, he became CEO of a Silicon Valley electronics-related firm. His desire to combine a love for sports with expertise in business resulted in the firm of SOSNICK COBBE SPORTS.

PAUL COBBE earned his Bachelor of Arts from Brown University with a major in International Commerce. After living and studying in Europe, Korea and Canada, Paul spent nearly a decade as a Senior Executive with Andersen Consulting in San Francisco and with Deloitte & Touche in Tokyo. His ability to communicate and conduct business in France, Korea and Japan opens the door for SOSNICK COBBE SPORTS in the Asian and European markets.

Meet the Team

Jonathan Pridie, Adam Karon & Tripper Johnson

JONATHAN PRIDIE spent seven years as a professional baseball player with the Minnesota Twins. Originally from Arizona, his association with Sosnick Cobbe Sports began in 2000 when he chose Sosnick Cobbe to represent him as a member of the Twins Major League roster. Following a career ending shoulder injury, Jonathan became a certified baseball player agent by the MLBPA and joined the Sosnick Cobbe team to share his wealth of on and off the field knowledge.

ADAM KARON earned his Bachelor of Arts with honors from the University of California, Los Angeles, with a major in History and a Political Science minor. He went on to study law at the University of Southern California and is a licensed attorney. A certified baseball player agent by the MLBPA, Adam is involved in negotiating draft bonuses and endorsements for his clients, and provides legal counsel for Sosnick Cobbe Sports.

TRIPPER JOHNSON began his professional baseball career when he was advised by Sosnick Cobbe as a first round pick of the Baltimore Orioles. In high school, he was Washington's Gatorade Athlete of the Year in 2000 and was a First-Team All State selection in baseball, basketball and football. After retiring from baseball, Johnson resumed his studies at the University of Washington where he became a starting defensive back for the Huskies football team. Specializing in player recruitment, Tripper brings a wealth of experience to Sosnick Cobbe Sports.

I can call Matt about anything imaginable and he will help me out with it. Sosnick Cobbe treats everyone in the company like family and they are there for anything I need. I feel very strongly about this agency and its presence in the baseball world for many years to come.

Jay Bruce, Cincinnati Reds

I have and will be with Paul and Matt my entire career. I found people who I can trust, and that's very important to me.

Freddy Sanchez, San Francisco Giants
2006 NL Batting Champion, 3-time NL All Star

Matt and Paul have been with me since the very beginning. I've always been proud to be part of the Sosnick Cobbe family.

Ricky Nolasco, Florida Marlins

I will never change agents. I've known Matt for ten years and he has never steered me wrong. He's like an uncle to me.

Josh Johnson, Florida Marlins (via ESPN)
2-time NL All Star

It's hard to express exactly how important Sosnick Cobbe has been to my career. Matt and Paul are like family to me. They treated me the exact same way when I was an 8th round pick as they do now that I am in the Big Leagues. I am proud to tell people that I'm represented by Sosnick Cobbe Sports.

Dontrelle Willis, San Francisco Giants

I remember when I made my Major League debut, Paul flew to Pittsburgh the day of the Amateur Draft and flew my parents in from Washington as well. You don't forget things like that.
